

KINLANI

1943

Jerry Gibson

We dedicate this book to whatever Flagstaff has meant to you — to your friends, or to those students who sat around you yesterday. Flagstaff may represent four long years of events to you but to others it may be only the brief glimpse of a football game, or a dance.

To you, perhaps, Flagstaff has been a beginning — a completion of preparedness. To others it may mean broken dreams or disillusionment. And then to still others Flagstaff is only as they picture it on these pages. But Flagstaff means something to everyone . . . and it is to this that we dedicate the Kinlani for 1943.

New Friends

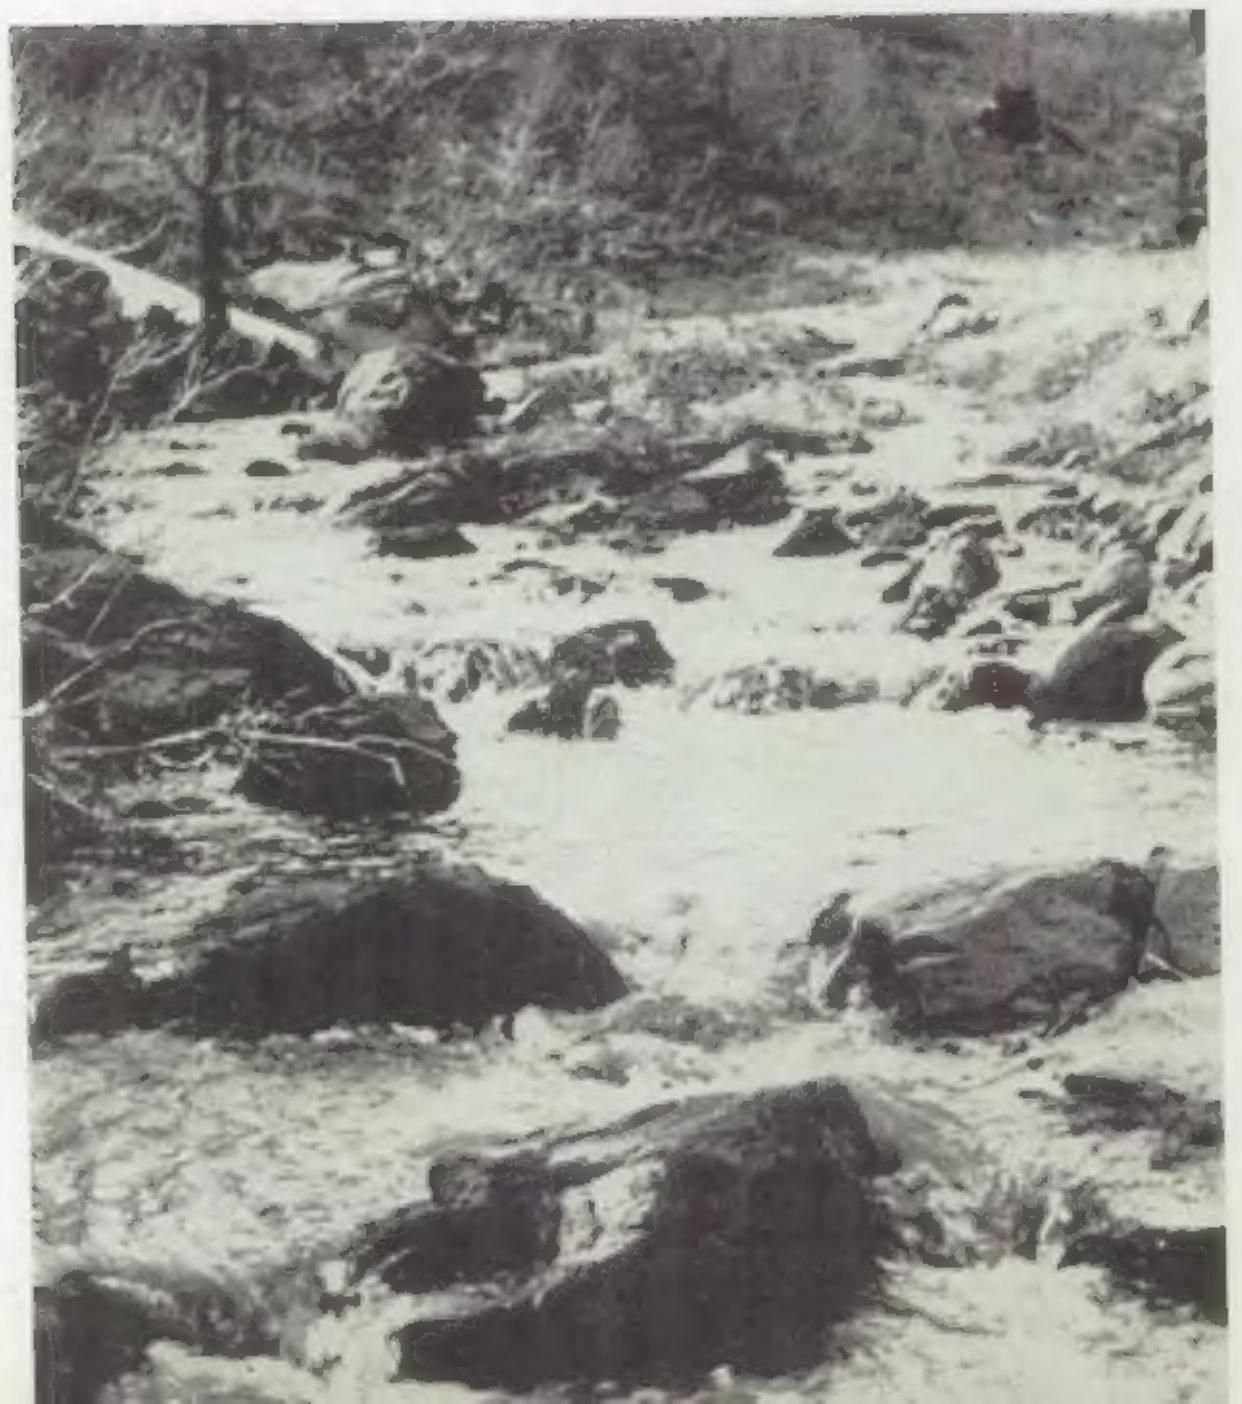

Surrounded by one of the most scenic sections of the West, Flagstaff High School, the home of both senior and junior high students, offers equal opportunity for all and a chance to acquire new knowledge, meet new friends, and to continue on to new horizons.

Because nature has so abundantly provided mountains, streams, forests, and other natural playgrounds,

students are able to spend afternoons and weekends enjoying the great outdoors near the school.

Superintendent of Flagstaff Schools

The board of education and the superintendent work together closely to provide the best school system and faculty which it is possible to obtain. They act as the connecting link between the school and the community, and not only provide for the welfare of the high school but for the entire city school system as well.

Mr. Thomas has been both superintendent and principal since Lieutenant Speer left us to join the Navy.

LIEUT. ROSS B. SPEER

LIEUT. SPEER'S MESSAGE

At the same time that Germany and Japan were training their youth to be militaristic specialists, the students in the elementary and high schools of this country were being offered a general education in preparation for living together in a democracy and for adaptation to such situations as shall develop in later life.

Now let us analyze the outcome. War came. Germany and Japan were prepared. They got the jump on the Allied nations and had the best of the going for some months. The Allied nations hurriedly started training men to fight and gave over industry of the country to arming them for battle. Our men and machines are now on all the battlefronts of the world.

Have the youths who were given a general education for living with the idea that such an education would prepare them to adapt themselves to new situations been able to meet the challenge? Take a look. They have met in battle those same military experts who have been trained for one purpose since childhood. In a few short months they have adapted themselves to a new endeavor. They have learned to use the implements and tactics of war to a better advantage than those who have specialized from childhood. They can whip the Hun and the Jap at his own game. We do not claim to be a super-race. We have more to fight for than do the Super-race or the Sons of Heaven. We are fighting for the rights of all men to their places in the world order.

How is this reflected in the life within our own school? Students, faculty, administration work together to outline the policies under which the school is to operate. Public opinion is not confined to the collective opinions of the faculty and administration or the administration alone. The most important single section of public opinion in the Flagstaff High School is the collective opinion of the student body.

We are so positive that our way of life, giving recognition to the individuality of each man and woman, is the way we want to live that we are willing to fight, all out, anyone who tries to interfere. Such being the case, it must be the endeavor of all students in American high schools in general and those in the Flagstaff High School in particular to so control and govern themselves that Democracy shall be strengthened for the coming years.

JOURNALISM

GREEN AND BROWN

The school paper is mimeographed and published every two weeks. This year the circulation was the largest thing ever seen with almost every student in the senior and junior high reading a copy. The staff is as follows: Editor, D. L. Skaggs; sports editor, Bill Brown; feature editor, Ruth Corbett and Anita Wuertumburg; poetry editor, Mary Catherine Skaggs and Joy Ulrey; pencils, Evelyn Scantland, Bill Arniga, and Ruth Corbett; proof reader, Bill Skaggs; reporter, Martha Jane Webber; printer, C. L. Brown.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary journalistic society for high school journalists and the members are selected on the basis of scholastic standing and outstanding ability in journalism. The members include D. L. Skaggs, Norman E. Smith, Tom Brown, and Bill Brown.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year the faculty elects to the National Honor Society 15 per cent of the senior class and 5 per cent of the junior class. Election is based upon four things: first, scholarship—student must be in upper third of his class; second, leadership—student must be a leader and prominent in school activities; third, service—student must have given his school his maximum service; and fourth, character.

Seniors elected during junior year are Ter Habbitt, Mary Margaret Meighan, Ruth Corbett, and William Priest (in the service). Seniors elected during this year are Thomas Tormey, James McGinley, Bobbye Hulls, and D. L. Skaggs. Juniors elected this year are Howard Wren and Lois Lane.

N. A. H. S.

To be eligible for the National Athletic Honor Society, a boy must have at least a three average in his school work; he must have a letter in a major sport or two letters in minor sports; and he must have sterling sportsmanship.

BAND

Playing for many civic organizations, performances, and concerts, the band has made more public appearances this year than ever before. Its soloists, Howard Wren and Virginia Pryor, are to be highly complimented. The band's officers include

GLEE CLUB

Our Glee Club for this school year under the direction of Mr. James Williams was a mixed choir of boys and girls singing four parts.

We were honored by giving performances for the various clubs and organizations at Flagstaff. There were also performances at several of the churches. Near the end of the school year we were united with the college choir to sing the musical of 'The Crucifixion'.

The sopranos were Beverly Bellwood, Betty Julia Dunham, Jackie Fuss, Bobbye Hulls, Patty Ann Jakle, Lourdes Mondragon, Martha Moreno, Anna May Payne, Joanne Ports, Virginia Pryor, Berta Pullen, Rachael Slayton, Dorothy Stanfil, Laveta Steele, Francis Souris, Polly Vasquez, Genevieve Willis, Jerver Woo, and Marjorie Wright.

The altos were Euline Bradford, Betty Burns, Carolyn Leamon, Stella Kavathas, Mary Margaret Meighan, and Marycarol Pryor.

The tenors were Bill Bower, Junior Gordon, and Charles Pullen.

The basses were Monte Bolles, Neil Maxwell, Donald Speer, Jay Speer, and Howard Allen.

MUSIC

This year the music department under the capable supervision of Mr. James R. Williams has been prominent in the many activities of F.H.S.

The different groups of this department entertained at school plays, opened all assemblies, and performed at different city clubs and organizations.

The "Swing Band" was new this year and provided music for social hours. Toward the end of the year, the band turned professional and played for a few public dances.

Another new group was the German Band, alias "The Friends of the New Order." They played at many service clubs, and were the highlight of the amateur program given in assembly.

Besides these new organizations, there were the old groups such as the quartets and trios who performed at many school functions and city clubs.

SENIOR PLAY

The seniors presented "Out of the Frying Pan" March 19. The three-act farce concerned a group of youngsters who had tried every scheme to secure an audition with Mr. Kenny, the producer. Mr. Ccoun, the father of one of the youngsters, suddenly dropped in for a visit which caused utter panic and confusion among the group. Mr. Bruce Hannah was the director of the hit.

JUNIOR PLAY

"Ever Since Eve" was presented December 1 by the juniors. The story was centered around Johnny Clover, the editor of the school newspaper, and the editor of the grade associate editor. Everything proceeded smoothly. When Johnny developed the measles, Sam Blake assumed the editor's responsibilities which resulted in an up-and-down mix-up. Mr. Hannah, the director, was responsible for the tremendous success of the play.

The trend of the '43 Kinlani has been away from the formal documentary form to a representative cross-section of high school life. Acting upon the belief that it should be the student's thoughts and actions we have tried to inject a bit of originality into the layout, a bit of personality in the photography, and a touch of spice into the copy.

Whether we have achieved these ends or not, the Kinlani has been a proving ground for the journalist and the camera fiend, and to all those who have helped and have shared in the experience, hard work, and fun that is the Kinlani, the story of the high school

This year another oratorical contest was held at Flagstaff High School. Out of the English IV class of twenty-nine students who all gave orations on the Constitution of the United States, seven were chosen to compete in the school contest. Marycarol Pryor, who spoke on "The Three Greatest Freedoms of a Democracy" was the winner, while Tess Babbitt came in second with the topic "This is Worth Fighting For." There was a tie between Bernard Navarro and Ruth Corbett for third place.

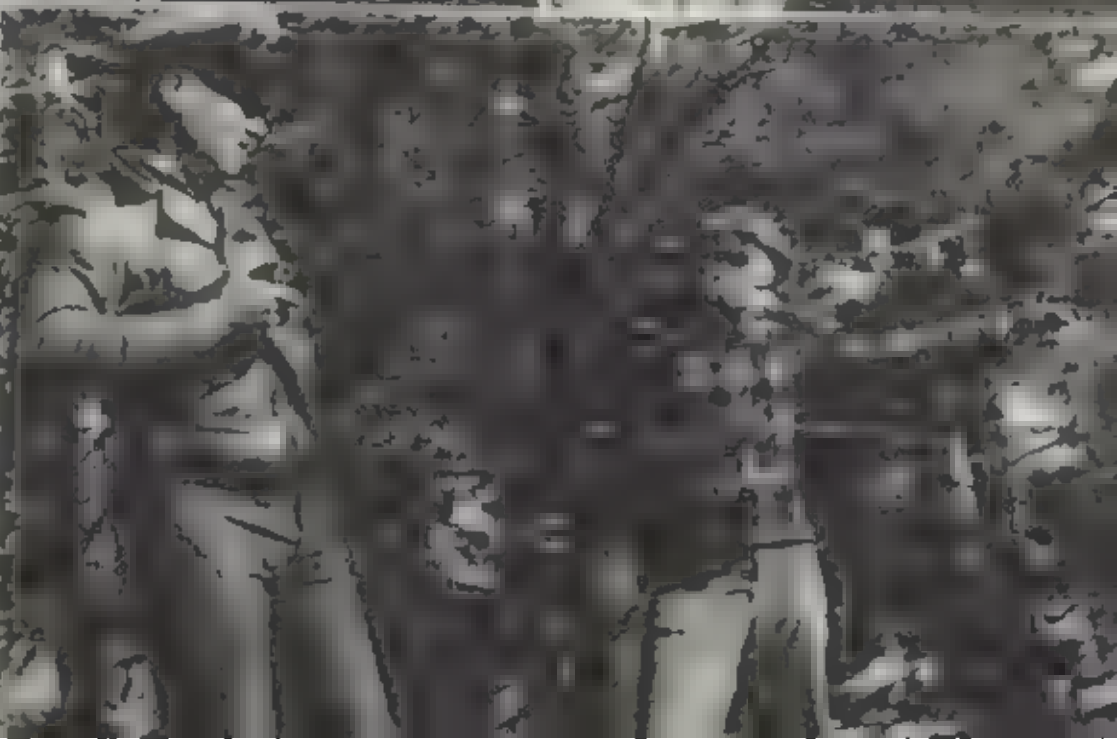

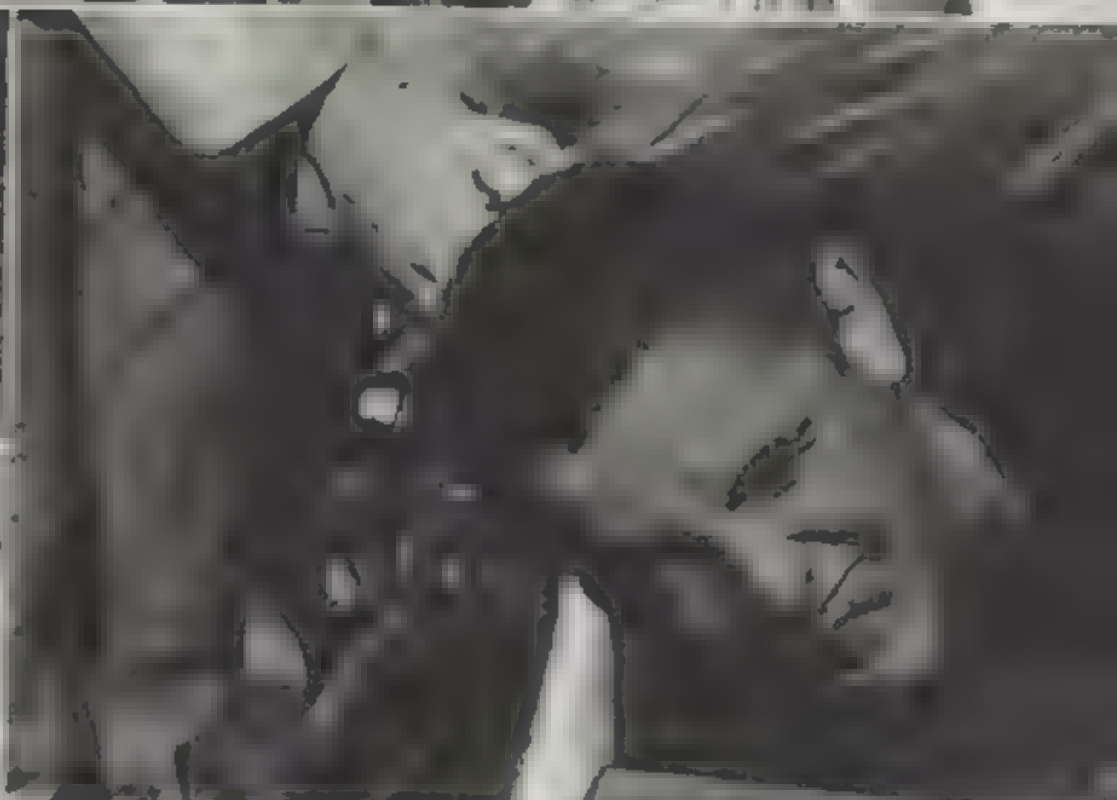

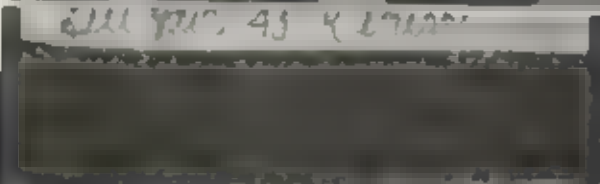

During the year the English IV class participated in an assembly with a debate subject "Resolved: That a Twenty-five Thousand Dollar Ceiling Should Be Put on All Wages, Salaries, and Incomes." Marjorie Wright and David Luken took the affirmative while Frances Gourd and Newell Fisher had the negative. The affirmative won by a judge's decision of two-to-one.

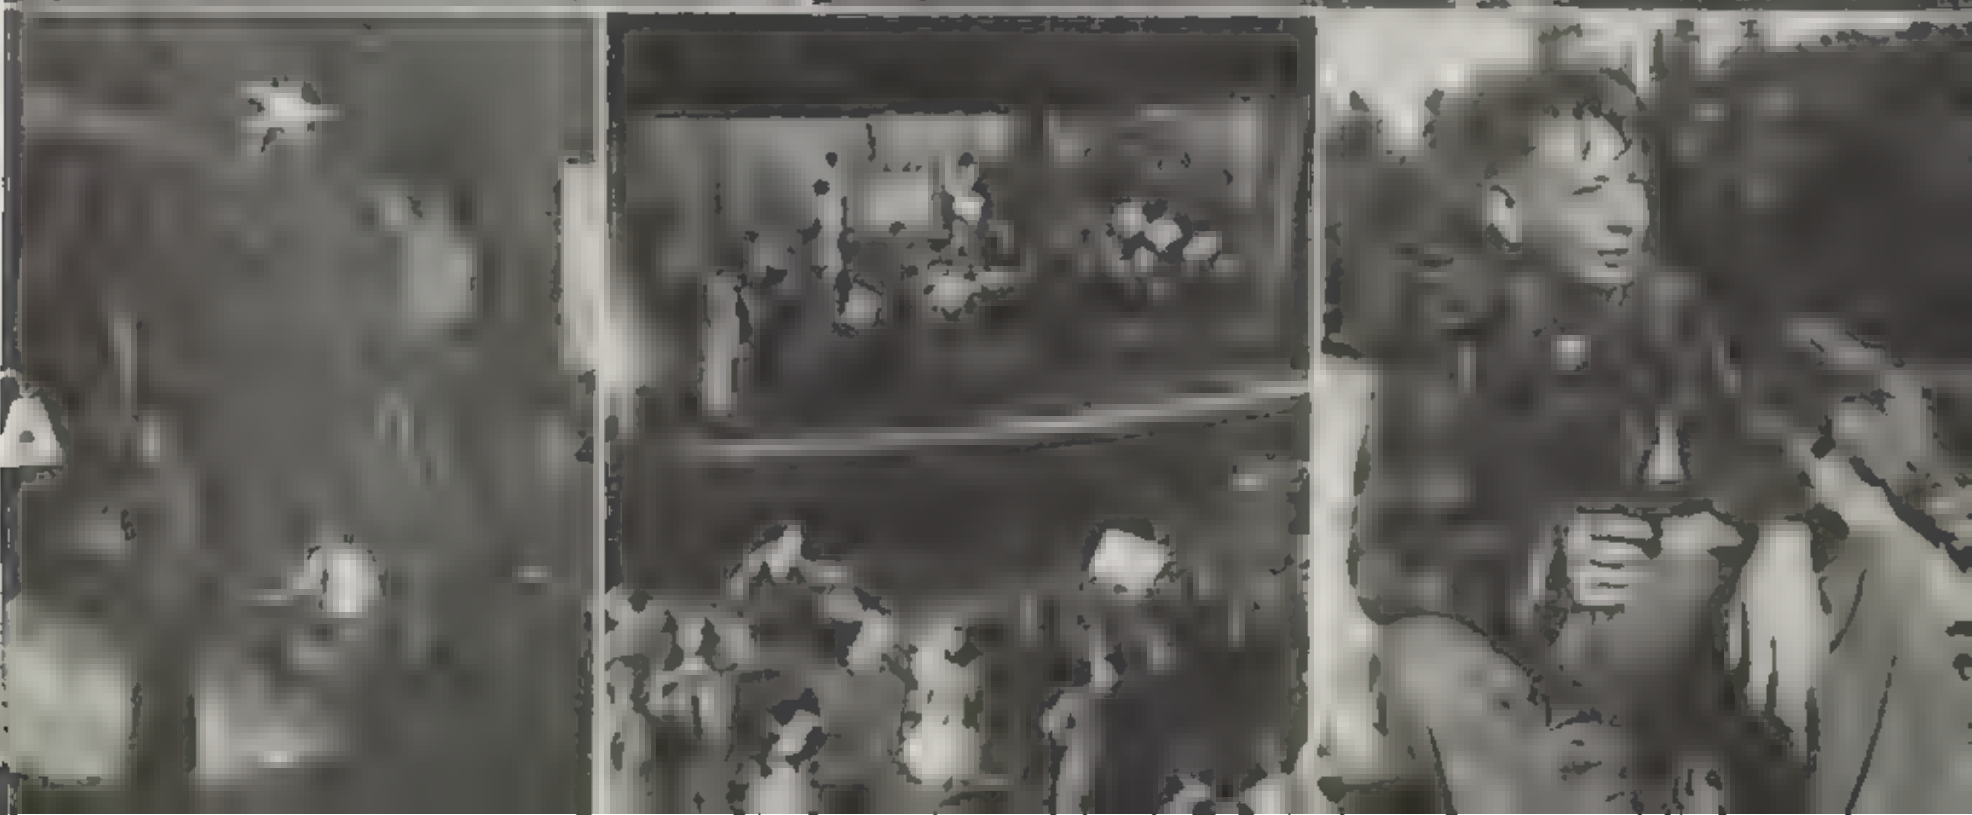

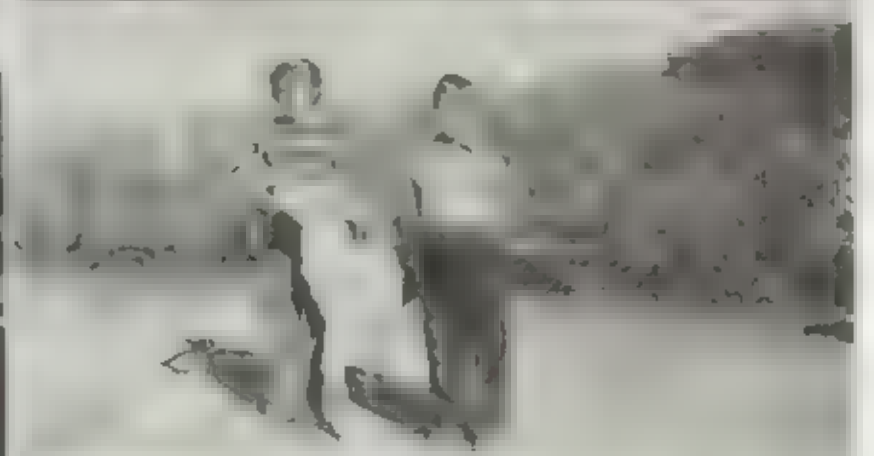

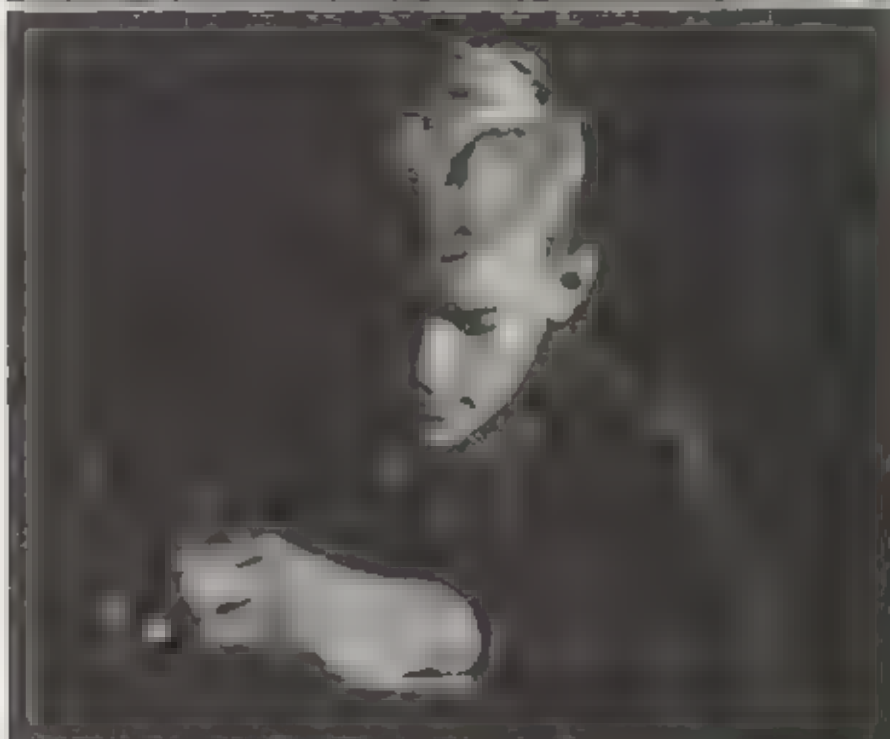

Another debate was held in assembly on the subject, "Resolved: That Germany Was Treated Too Harshly After the First World War." The negative, which consisted of Brobye Hulls and D. L. Skaggs, was the winner while Bill Cameron and Mary Margaret Meighan talked on the affirmative side. Both debates proved very interesting to the student body of Flagstaff High School.

WILLIAM PRIEST

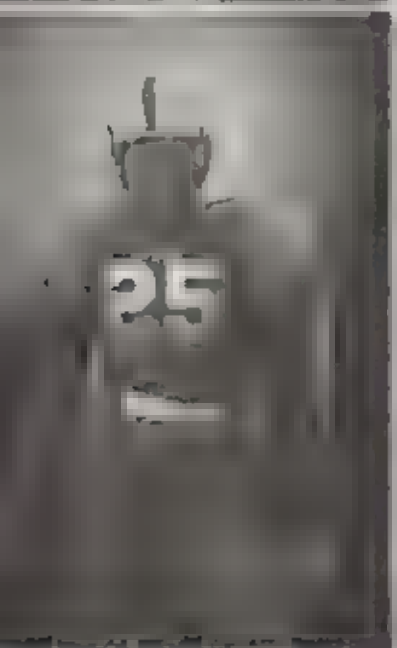

Quarterback - Senior

Priest played his third year for Flagstaff. He was a hard hitter and an excellent passer. He could be counted on to call the right play.

JOE AUBIN

Halfback - Senior

Aubin played his fourth and last year for the Eagles. He was one of the better men on the team and proved that size does not count. He could be counted on to make the best decision for the team. He was recognized on the All-State team.

GEORGE MACKARD

Halfback - Junior

Mackard played his first year for Flagstaff. He has proved to be a hard hitting back and a tough defensive man.

HAYES TRUKKE

Halfback - Senior

Trukke played his third year for F.H.S. The opponents always found him a hard man to get. His hard-hitting gained the Eagles many yards.

JAMES MCNELLY

Tackle - Senior

James played his first year for Flagstaff. He has played a good game, blocking and opening holes and stopping the opponent's run.

FRANK GOMEZ

Halfback - Sophomore

Frank played his first year for F.H.S. He was a good blocker, and the opponents found it hard to get a pass through him.

LESLIE ISAACS

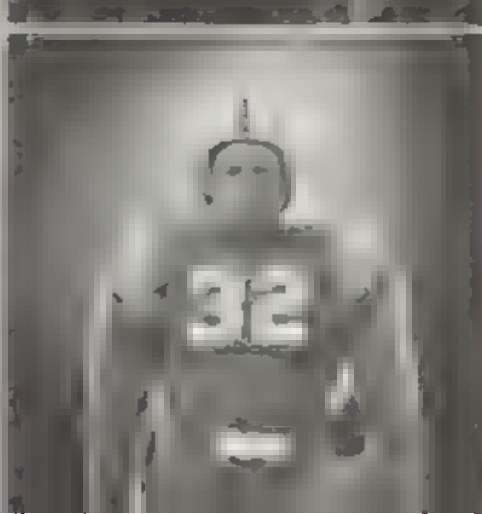

End - Sophomore

Isaacs played his first year for the Eagles. He could always be depended on to snag passes and hold up his end of the line.

ROBERT MURPHY

End - Senior

Murphy played his second year for Flagstaff. He could be counted on to snag passes and hold up his end of the line.

BERNARD NAVARRO

End - Senior

Bernard played his first year for the Eagles. He was a good blocker, tackle and passer.

MANUEL MIGUEL

Fullback - Sophomore

Miguel played his first year for Flagstaff. He was a good blocker and the opponents found it hard to get a pass through him.

FRED MAYORGA

Guard - Junior

Fred played his second year for Flagstaff. He always opened the holes and stopped the opponents plays. The opponents found him a very hard man to get through.

BOB BURNHELM

Team Manager - Senior

Bob this year took his place among the legion of football managers, those boys who do the dirty work and hardly get any credit.

JOHN RODRIGUEZ

Tackle - Junior

John played his second year for F.H.S. He always played a good game of football by opening big holes and stopping the opposition's plays. His blocks gave us many yards.

MILTON SECHRIST

Center - Senior

Milton played his third year for F.H.S. His plays were always a great help to the backfield.

CHARLES BROWN

Guard - Junior

Charles played his second year for Flagstaff. He was always in the opponents backfield. They found him a very tough guard.

RALPH JUAREZ

Tackle - Junior

Ralph played his first year for Flagstaff High School. He did his share for Eagle football fortunes this year.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Democracy in school is quite as important as it is in adult life. In student government is learned the basis of fair and democratic government to be used to this nation's advantage in future years.

The Associated Students of Flagstaff High School was organized four years ago for the express purpose of giving the students experience in self-government. It has succeeded admirably.

The Student Council, composed of the Student Body officers and representatives from the four classes, has participated in many wartime activities this year in addition to undertaking its regular functions. The Council was in charge of the disposition of income from the school's scrap pile, and a large amount of money was donated to the American Red Cross and to the United War Fund Drive. The Council has also voted to purchase copies of the Kinlan for former students in the service, and plans have been made for the formation of the Victory Corps.

More Student Body functions than ever have been sponsored by the Association, new committees have been formed and, all in all, more people have been drawn into the process of student government.

Of no small assistance in the success of the Associated Students has been the work of the two faculty advisers, Mr. D. F. Pullen and Mr. Wilfred Killip.

After four years of struggling, the Association has grown into a solid, efficient body. The last charter class in the organization is now graduating and leaving the student government which it helped draw up in capable hands. Next year's Student Body officers will have ample chance to prove their administrative merits and carry on in the tradition of "Government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

SENIOR HIGH STAMP CLUB

The stamp club consists of eleven members of the senior high and their sponsor Miss Rouleau, who are interested in the collection and history of stamps. The club had five displays in this year's hobby show, and also one display of the United Nations posted in the library. They are now working on a display of the Axis nations. The main duties of the club this year have been to enlarge their collections. The officers are as follows:

THOMAS TORMEY

PAUL VASQUEZ

JIMMY DYER

President

Vice President

Secretary Treasurer

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club, even though organized only for a few years, is fast becoming one of the outstanding clubs in the school. Its more important events during the last school year consisted of several overnight trips to the Snow Bowl and a Ski Carnival at Sheep Hill. The club's sponsor was Mr. Fred Anderson, who was recently inducted into the Army.

HIKING CLUB

Probably no hiking club in the country has been so generously treated by mother nature as the Flagstaff High School Hiking Club. For within distance and time the club members can hike over desert plateaus, ridges and peaks, and explore canyons, and Cathedral Rock in Oak Creek Canyon is at present the only obstacle which has not been topped by the club. And as a final project or as a culmination of the club's yearly activities, the group takes an overnight trip into the Grand Canyon.

A weekly hike and exploration, under the leadership of D. F. Pullen, is almost a rule with the club regardless of the fact that all members are not able to be in attendance on each outing.

Officers are Jack Butler, hike master (Navy); Kimball Moore, assistant hike master (Navy); and Tommy Knoles, secretary-treasurer.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

The Letterman Club is an organization for boys who have participated in sports. To be admitted a student must have earned one letter in a major sport or two letters in minor sports. The sweater and insignia of the club are a brown or green sweater with the letter "F" on it.

Old members of the club include Milton Christ, president; Joe Allen, Ward Harvey, Tony Lozano, George McCough, George Buys, George Madonna, Walter Chamberlain, and Bernard Nevgren.

New members admitted this year include George Naford, Leslie Isaacs, Frank Gomez, Manuel Mague, James McGree, and Bob Burnham.

The following members of the club entered the service this year: Matt Crnkovich, John Rodriguez, Ben Garcia, William Priest, Hayes Trukke, Robert Murphy, and Bill Gruening.

AERONAUTICS CLUB

The Aeronautics Club was organized during the first of the year for the purpose of learning the fundamentals of flying, and the mechanics of lighter-than air craft. The club met two hours on Wednesday and Thursday nights. The sponsors and teachers were Mr. D. F. Pullen and Mr. R. B. Speer. The officers of the club are as follows

JAMES MCGINLEY	President
JOE AUBIN	Vice President
LESLIE ISAACS	Secretary
HOWARD WREN	Treasurer

CHESS CLUB

This year many of the students at F.H.S. wanted to learn to play chess. The club was formed, and Mr. C. J. Broome, Mr. E. M. Donoghue and Mr. D. F. Pullen taught the members of the club how to play the game. The club met every month on Friday night and tournaments were held between the members. Officers of the club are as follows:

THOMAS TORMEY	President
MYRON SUTTON	Vice President
LESLIE ISAACS	Secretary

GIRLS HIKING CLUB

The Girl Hiking Club which is new this year was organized by a group of girls under the sponsorship of Miss McNerney. The main purpose of the club is to take weekly hikes to points of interest around Flagstaff. The officers of the club are as follows: president, Mary Gertrude Skidmore; vice-president, Joy Ulrey;

The other members are Martha Webster, Ruth Ann Spencer, Phyllis Dale Spencer, Virginia Pryor, Hazel Trulke, Lillian Langston, Louise Bankhead, Evelyn Scantland, Joan Dickerson, Geraldine Woo, Betty Cheshire, Alice Gutierrez and Annie Gutierrez.

This year our Flagstaff Junior Red Cross chapter has been doing its part in this crisis that is now facing the United States. Under the very capable supervision of Miss Rousseau and those in the school who are willing to put out some effort to help, a great deal of work is being done.

The Junior Red Cross Council consists of Marjorie Wright, Jimmie Nunn and Tommy Knowlton. This year the organization sponsored the book campaign which was a real success, and the basketball game helped in their drive for more money. They sent recreational and articles of comfort to Fort Huachuca and last but certainly not least, the Junior Red Cross chapter of the Junior High presented a play on their own time and supervision.

DEMOSAILLES CLUB

The Demosailles Club was organized in January 1943. The club was made up of a group of girls between the ages of 15 and 18. They drew up a charter and constitution which was approved and passed by the Student Council of Flagstaff High School.

A dance was given, and was a success. The theme of dance was a "Sweet-heart Ball." Members of the faculty were present and each member of the club was allowed to invite one guest.

The Club was under the sponsorship of Mr. Williams.

The members are: Stella Kavathas, Nan Longley, Euline Bradford, Peggy Meighan, Nancy Norman, Betty Medley, N. Lavinie Harman, Jean Scherbaum, Margery Osborn, Doris Fuss, Vivian Lindsay, Arlis Leamon, Marjorie Wright, Pat McKnight, Jackie Fuss, Lucele Kartchner, Lois Lane.

The officers are: president, Nancy Norman; vice president, Peggy Meighan; secretary-treasurer, Stella Kavathas; social manager, Nan Longley; publicity manager, Arlis Leamon.

F. H. S. PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The F. H. S. Photography Club was organized for the following purposes: to teach the members the correct use of their cameras, to teach them how to make good pictures, and to acquaint them with dark-room technique and special branches of photography. This year they have carried out their plans by having several demonstrations and lectures on the construction of the camera, negative development, printing, and enlarging. One of the most interesting meetings was on color photography. Some of the members used their knowledge of photography in taking a great many of the pictures for this year's Kinlani.

The officers are as follows: Mr. Micke, sponsor; Charles Pulen, president; Jer Kury Woo, vice president; Ivanhoe Lessman, secretary-treasurer. Other members include Robert Burnhelm, Donald Speer, Carolyn Leamon, and Carolyn Cobb.

GOLF

George McCullough and Jim Ellis defeated Winslow May 1, with M-Cullough as low scorer. On May 7th team again defeated Winslow.

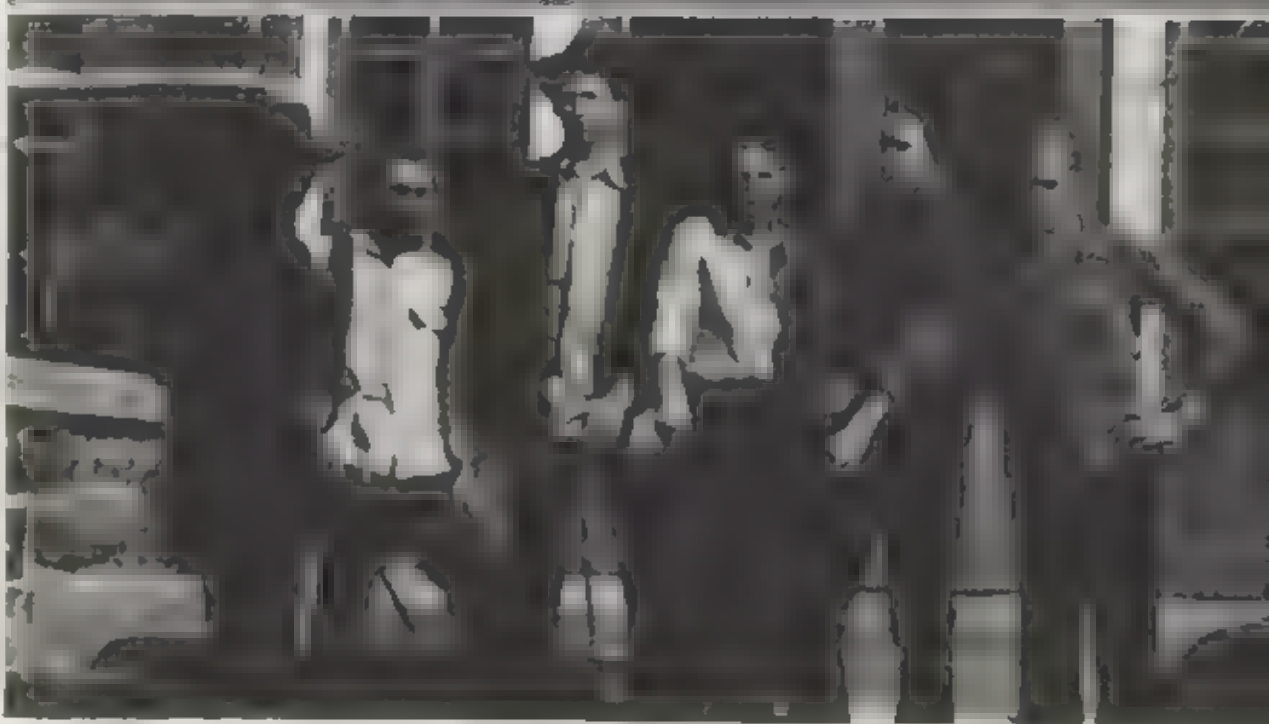

TENNIS

At Winslow on May 1, Junior Gordon took the singles, and Howard Wren and Monte Boles took the doubles. They met again on May 7 at Flagstaff.

TRACK

The track team met Winslow there on May 1 and again at Flagstaff on May 7. Winslow took both meets.

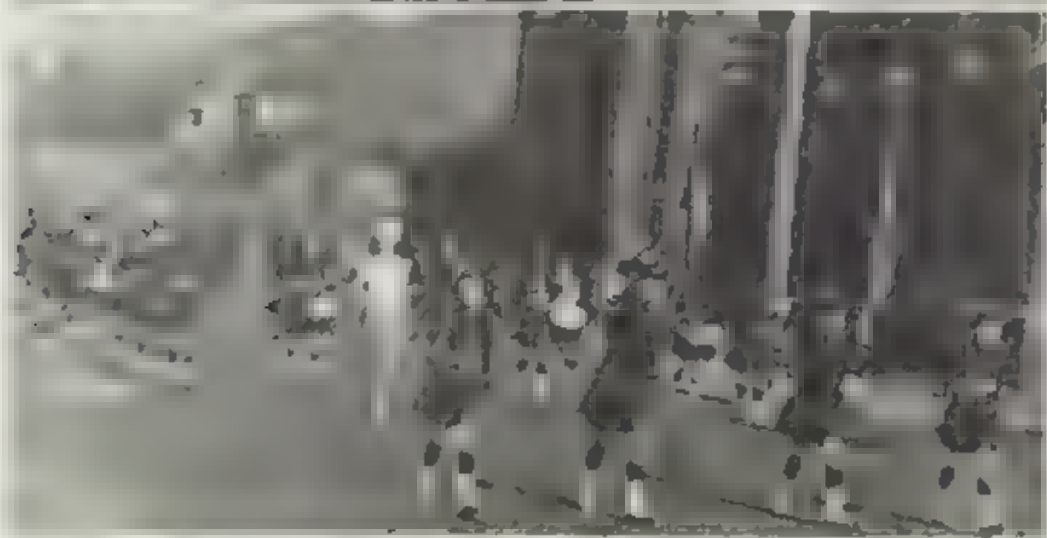

DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

Under the capable leadership of Mr. James Williams, the Drum and Bugle Corps, in new Scotch uniforms, was very active this year, performing at our high school football games, as well as the college's football games. They marched at the Navajo Ordnance Depot and stood review several times with Army troops stationed near Flagstaff.

Members of the Corps are the following: Marian Martin, majorette; Nonavie Harman and Jewell Stewart, lieutenants; Marjorie Wright, bugle captain; Mary Margaret Meighan, drum captain; Euline Bradford, drum lieutenant; Elna Schippnick, bugle lieutenant; Cora Ann Bennett, Donna Kunzelman, Carolyn Leamon, Patty Jakle, Eugenia Hanna, Helen Payne, Lois Hanna, Dorothy Stanfill, Phyllis Peck, Nathalie Schmidt, Helen Kavathas, Betty Burns, Sybil Martin, Helen Peris, Merle Julian, Brooksie Clark, Betty Cheshire, Lora Chiappetti, Rosemary Crnkovich, Stella Kavathas, Bobbye Hulls, Arlis Leamon, Carolyn Cobb, Lucele Kartchner, Jackie Moore, Betty Medley, Katherine Matthews, Emma Jean Hardy, Mary Emma Hendrickson, Doris Fuss, Mary Stern, Louise Bankhead, and Winifred Cox.

The question is asked, "How does a student feel, graduating into a world at war?"

In answer to that question, we say, "We are grateful to civilization; it has been very generous and kind to us. It has afforded us a chance for advancement and education.

"But today civilization is in jeopardy. There are barbarians who would destroy it—return the universe to the Stone Age. Our forebears gave us civilization, but they cannot defend it for us; only we can do that.

We are better men and women because we have attended this institution. We have profited from our stay here. We have gleaned learning from books and from contacts with teachers and students. We have also had our share of fun. But this is all a thing of the past. We are now going out into the world to pay off our debt to civilization. We shall be compelled to DESTROY in order to PRESERVE our way of life. And when all the destruction is finished, we shall rebuild the world; we shall make this a better world.

"This is an exceedingly difficult task. But we have faith and confidence in our generation. We can do the job. This will be a better world because we have lived and built in it. And we believe that because we have spent four years at this high school, we shall be better qualified to fulfill our task."

JUNIORS

For three years we, the class of '44, have been proceeding toward one goal, graduation. We are now at the three quarter mark. In the years we have been here we have made many changes. From meek freshmen we changed to sophomores full of self-confidence. Then as juniors our class took on the responsibility of our first year as upper-classmen. We are now ready to take up our duties as seniors.

As juniors we sponsored two of the outstanding events of the school year, the junior prom and junior play. These events were made successful by careful planning and work under the direction of our class officers, Robert Ward, Walter Chambers, and Margery Osborn.

To our sponsors, Mr. D. F. Pullen, Mrs. Lee Kenner, and Mr. Norman Borg, we extend our sincere appreciation. We realize how greatly we have benefited by their help, and we are determined to prove this appreciation by carrying on next year in a fashion we know they will be proud of.

SOPHOMORES

We, the sophomores, have reached the half-way mark. We are the second sophomore class in twenty-five years to reach its goal in the shadow of a world war. We are grateful for our freedom—the freedom of education, which will be of great value as we step from school into a war torn world to do our bit toward the establishment of a better world.

We wish to thank our class advisors, Mr. Micke, Mr. Killip, and Miss McGinley, for their helpful guidance and cooperation during these years, and we hope we can prove worthy of the splendid leadership of Junior Gordon, Tommy Knoles, and Jim Ellis, our class officers, who have worked so diligently in helping us to sponsor the number of social activities our class has arranged and presented for the school. As a class we stand united in our pride for our high school and fine faculty. We are grateful for their kind help and good advice and hope that as we go on into our third year that we may all be a credit to Flagstaff High School.

Even though we of the freshman class have been considered by the high school as underdogs, we are proud of our record so far in Flagstaff High School, and we mean to uphold it.

Out of the turmoil of a war-torn school year, we have emerged with a complete success. Even as beginners, we have been able to hold our own, scholastically, socially, and otherwise.

We realize that in a world of war, it becomes more necessary day by day for us to better prepare ourselves and to utilize our opportunities to the fullest extent so that we will be well fitted and entirely able to take our places in the world of industry, be it a world of peace or a world of strife.

We know that our democracy with all its freedoms is the best way of life and that our education for this way of life is worth working and fighting for, so we as a class have resolved to work and to make the best use of our educational opportunities in the future as we have in the past.

We have one more thing to say before you turn the page. Our class officers, Berta Pullen, Beverly Bellwood, and Ross Speer, Jr., and our sponsors, Mr. Bruce Hannah, Mr. J. E. MacDonough, and Miss Ruth Dotson, have all played a major role in making this year such a success, and words cannot express our gratitude toward them.

JUNIOR HIGH

The junior high wing, which is now connected to Flagstaff High School, was begun early in 1940 and was finished the following autumn. Although the junior high has been a part of Flagstaff High School for only three years, we feel that it has become a part of our school system. The junior high and its teachers, under the supervision of Mr. Hill Redman, are glad to be a part of Flagstaff High School. We may feel sure that the goal of the junior high will be graduation from the senior class. We in Flagstaff High School sincerely hope that they will keep on climbing until their prize is won. Following in the steps of the high school, the junior high has elected its own student body officers, who are as follows:

Eight A: Emigene Hardy, president; Mervin Dwiggin, vice-president; Edwin Potts, secretary.

Eight B: Oma Bennett, president; Nina German, vice president; Sarah Alvarado, secretary.

Eight C: Fifi Medina, president; Lorraine Bellwood, vice-president; Demetrio Morales, secretary.

Seven A: Lucio Villalpando, president; Lorraine Kavathas, vice-president; Donald Gumm, secretary.

Seven B: Jacqueline Sykes, president; Ralph Goitia, vice-president; Pete Morales, secretary.

Seven C: Irene Vasquez, president; Melba Jo Adams, vice-president; Dora Gallegos, secretary.
